COMING THEATRICAL SEASON.

Mr. Dailey Tells Who and What He Is Bringing This Time.

W. R Dailey in a private letter gives the following particulars of the theatrical season he is shortly to give at the Hawaiian Opera House: I will soon be with you again stronger than ever. My scenic artist and carpenter sail to morrow and commence the work of transformation. My company is much stronger than before—14 people in all—and includes such artists as Miss Kate Dalgleish, Louis and Kitty Belmour, Jean Weiner, Al. H. Hallett, Rich-ard Scott, P. A. Nannary, Mollie Stockmeyer. Mortimer Snow and Genevieve Nannary are the only old faces. The company has not one faces. The company has not one stick in it as before. We shall play a very strong repertoire, including many of the very latest successes. Our opening will be a big production of "Two Orphans," followed by "Charley's Aunt," "Silver King," "A Night Off," "Wife's Devotion," "The Player," and so down the lies of the Player," and so down the line of the very best material.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS

Several Matters at the Clerk's Office and Chambers.

Judgment has been entered for the plaintiff in accordance with the verdict, in Fillepe Lopez vs. Autone Quelho, for $861 and $229 costs, making in all $1090.

In Queen Kapiolani vs. S. W. Mahelona, a bond for costs has been given by S. W. Mahelona and Isaac H. Sherwood.

In the matter of the estate of Antone Manuel, before Judge Cooper, the accounts of W. C. Parke, guardi-an of minors, are approved subject to certain orders of the Court. Mr. Parke resigning, J. A. Magoon is appointed in his place.

A BICYCLE TRIP.

Forbes and Thrum Will Ride the Cleveland to the Volcano.

William Forbes and Vida Thrum left on the steamer W. G. Hall this morning for Kona, Hawaii. They will land at Punaluu and will pro ceed from there on Cleveland bicycles to the Volcauo. After a short stay they will ride to Hilo to arrive there in time to catch the steamer Kinau on its return trip. The boys expect to break the record created by Jack Atkinson on his recent visit to the Volcano. They expect to be home in time to take part in the field meeting of the Honolulu Amateur Athletic club.

Morning and Evening Star.

Men, women and children will enjoy the Morning and Evening Star drinks. For their pleasant flavor and soothing effect generally, the ladies, whose delicate systems require a beverage that will act gently and be entirely safe under all conditions, are the bottom some seconds before his enthusiastic in their praise of Morning and Evening Star, and the men did realize his peril they became prefer them to all other drinks because they are more beneficial in their effects. They do not interfere with business or pleasure and are entirely free from all injurious or disagreeable substances. When the blood is impure or the stomach weak, the Evening Star can be drank to advantage, and invalids will find relief from it. In the production of these drinks the Hawaiian Islands have been enriched with the only perfect gentle beverages known. The price per dozen is 50c., delivered to all parts of the city free N. While in Chicago, Mr. Charles L. Kahler, a prominent shoe merchant of Des Moines, lowa, had quite a serious time of it. He took such a severe cold that he could hardly talk or navigate, but the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured him of his cold so quickly that others at the hotel who had bad colds followed his example and half a dozen persons ordered it from the nearest drug store. They were profuse in their thanks to Mr. Kahler for telling them how to cure a bad cold so quickly. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Colonel Norris Lets His Rauch Be

All the vital points in the legal battle waged between Madame Emilie de Herblay of New York and Colonel Samuel Norris of Hawaii for several years past have been won by the fair plaintiff. Judgment has been entered up finally in her favor for $14,764.98, yet still it appears the Colonel will not put up the money. The suit was begun in the Hawaiian courts several years ago on a somewhat ancient judgment obtained in New York. This original judgment was for a debt alleged to have been incurred about the beginning of the American civil war. That debt is, however, a comparatively small portion of the pre in typewriting posted up, announcing that he will sell Colonel Norris's property on Hawaii, at the Honolulu Police Station, on Saturday, October 6, in satisfaction of the $14,000 and odd judgment. There are several parcels of land comprising the well-known Kabuku Rauch with buildings, 5600 head of cattle, etc. One would think so important a sale would warrant the expense of printed posters and advertising in all the papers, instead of being obscurely announced with typewrit-ing on the deadwalls. Colonel Norris paid $27,000 or thereabout
